

THE TACTLESS PHOTOJOURNALIST

Lajos Erdélyi's
Archive
from the Ceașescu Era

The Blinken OSA Archivum cordially invites you to the opening of the exhibition:
The Tactless Photojournalist. Lajos Erdélyi's Archive from the Ceașescu Era

The exhibition presents, for the first time, a comprehensive overview of the hitherto little-known work of Transylvanian photojournalist, journalist, and savior of archives Lajos Erdélyi. It evokes the raw reality of Ceașescu's Romania through the lens of an artist who managed to document his time with an autonomous vision—even within the confines of official mandates.

Exhibition opening:
June 19, 2025, Thursday, 6:00 p.m.

Opening remarks by
Zsuzsa Zádori, Curator, Senior Archivist, Blinken OSA Archivum

Opening speech by György Dragomán, writer

While the exhibition is bilingual (Hungarian and English),
the event will be held in Hungarian.

Curators: Lenke Szilágyi, Zsuzsa Zádori

The exhibition is open until October 26, 2025. Admission is free.

Blinken OSA Archivum | Galeria Centralis
Arany János utca 32, 1051 Budapest, Hungary
Tuesday–Sunday: 10:00 a.m.–6:00 p.m.