

ÁBTL-3.1.9.-V-160122 /40

FAITH
TRUST
SECRECY

Religion through the lenses of the Secret Police

Date: February 28 – April 05, 2020
Location: Galeria Centralis
Blinken Open Society Archives

Opening ceremony: February 28 2020, 06:00 PM
Opening remarks by: István Rév, historian
James Kapaló, project leader
Andrea Tompa, author

About the exhibition: In this exhibition we present the complex interactions of the communist-era secret police with religious groups and those seeking to research them. Faith and trust, whether sustained or broken, and secrecy are interwoven in the images, narratives and testimonies on display.

Further information: www.hiddengalleries.eu hiddengalleries@ucc.ie

This project received funding from the European Research Council (ERC) under the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme No. 677355

Galeria Centralis / Blinken OSA
H-1051 Budapest, Arany János u. 32.
Tue-Sun / 10:00 AM - 06:00 PM
Monday closed.