

FAKE OR REAL

Fake for Real:

November 19, 2024 –
February 16, 2025

The Blinken OSA Archivum cordially invites you to the opening of the exhibition:

Fake for Real: A History of Forgery and Falsification

A touring exhibition of the House of European History, Brussels

November 19, 2024 – February 16, 2025

With its third stop in Budapest at the Blinken OSA Archivum, Fake for Real: A History of Forgery and Falsification, the traveling exhibition of the Brussels-based House of European History, presents falsifications throughout European history, and offers a theatrical journey through the motives, impact, and exposure of fakes. While uncovering the fascinating world of forgery, fakes and falsehoods, visitors will be swept along a dramatic narrative, spanning from antiquity to the present day.

Exhibition opening

November 19, 2024, Tuesday, 6:00 p.m.

Opening remarks by

István Rév, Director,
Blinken OSA Archivum

Opening speeches by

Constanze Itzel, Director, House of European History
Joanna Urbanek, Curator, House of European History

Curators: Joanna Urbanek, Simina Badica

Touring exhibition project manager: Raluca Neamu

Based on “Fake for Real: A History of Forgery and Falsification” temporary exhibition, between October 2020 and January 2022

The exhibition is open until 16 February 2025. Admission free.